Customer Reviews

I love the Powder River series... it is like a modern Six Shooter series, only it lasts more than a season and has long term plots and characters coming and going. The theater of the mind cannot be beat (as much as I like old movies as well).

While the first season of Powder River was uneven (although it still contains some great episodes) the show just went on to get better and better. Season five is great. By now the characters in this series feel like family. I am looking forward to Season 6!

I have been a Colonial Radio Theater fan for many years. The Powder River series is the best. Great music and sound effects. The story line is very interesting and it is like visiting old friends. Powder River Season 5 is fun, fun, fun!

This season was not as good as the earlier ones. Too many of the people have been killed off. The writers need to reread the earlier seasons and see why people like them. I will listen to one more season and if it doesn't get better it will be our last.
