GUCCI: The Making Of

Synopsis

An unprecedented publication showcasing Gucci as never before, including thought-provoking essays, commentaries, and authoritative anecdotes along with previously unpublished contemporary and archival photographs. Published in conjunction with the opening of the new Gucci Museum in Florence, Gucci is the ultimate celebration of the world-renowned fashion house. Told through a loose grouping of words, concepts, shapes, and moods, the book tells its story through new conceptual forms and the free links between images, symbols, and objects. Edited by Gucci Creative Director Frida Giannini, with essays and inserts by contributors including Katie Grand, Peter Arnell, Rula Jebreal, Christopher Breward and Stefano Micelli, Gucci: The Making Of is a dynamic record of a much-coveted brand that will be a must this season for anyone with a love of fashion and an interest in contemporary culture. This comprehensive volume showcases the genius of the fashion house through an exclusive lens with inside looks into the inspirations behind the design. This gorgeous book designed by Arnell offers an in-depth look into Gucci's origins, identity, influence, and innovation, including fabrication methods and appropriation of signature materials, past and present, and its influence among high society and Hollywood. The book is a heartfelt and personalized tribute to the heritage and influence of this iconic, multifaceted brand. In recognition of its ongoing partnership with UNICEF and the release of this luxury edition, Gucci will make a donation of US $250,000 to support UNICEF's Schools for Africa initiative.

SNEAK A PEEK @ BOOK REVIEW / SNAPSHOTS NÂ Â 9 : GUCCI : THE MAKING OF - EDITED BY RIZZOLI NEW YORKA-PRIVATE-BOOKS-COLLECTION.BLOGSPOT.COMVISIT MY BLOGSPOT BOOK REVIEWSMEET A PRIVATE BOOKS COLLECTIONIvo Barnes is the founder of the blog "a private collection books". Before being founder, editor, blogger, artist / photographer, Ivo Barnes is especially a great lover of art books, fashion, architecture, design, photography, cooking books ... To tell you the whole truth, I think more seriously than I have a great addiction to books. I love books with hard covers more especially, books whose layout is attractive, books whose interior full of more exciting as each other photos, books that transport you to another dimension or exude a lifestyle that you identified. Art books can be a gift appreciated by any person, they also always find a place in your interior, near you in a library, put on a bench, or simply all arranged on your coffee table. At home , my books are arranged everywhere in my libraries on my buffets, and a large console behind the sofa. I buy books very regularly and in general when I 'm in a library better never stay too long , or leave me alone , or away from me, because I often leave with 5-6 books of art, under the arm. Being more a collector of books that a simple and basic book buyer (for my collection extends over 300 pounds), I noticed that it is very difficult to get a point of view, an idea or simply to know what the book actually looks like on the websites of publishers. Generally when the books are not purchased directly from a library or large retail chains, details and photos of books on the websites of publishers are small, often with little information or even no photo viewing for some very experienced editors/publishers.
