Customer Reviews

I finally clawed time to read The Wealthy Health Copywriter Wow! I wish I'd carved out time sooner. This excellent book distills everything the author learned in three years of workshops, courses and seminars, and then provides even more bang for our hard-earned Euros by sharing his wealth of industry experience. As a result of reading The Wealthy Health Copywriter The author promises, "You can read this book on a Monday, use these techniques on a Tuesday, and see your royalties shoot up the following month." I read this book on a Wednesday, and on Thursday I implemented some of the many powerful, but simple (once you know them) secrets including:- Rewriting my copy blogs, newsletters and other marketing comms) with B-E-S-T Headline Formulas- (It was awesome that in Chapter Two the author gave examples re how to do this)- Simplifying the language, using metaphors, and focusing on real-life benefits- Harnessing the 'Power of One' by making sure the headlines and leads are driven by just One Big Idea, one core benefit or promise, or one major pain point and solution- Weaving a 'golden thread' linking these ideas together- Running through this checklist every time I read the control of a product I'm writing for, giving me an instant head-start, and confidence right from the get-go, even before I've started- Mastering the art of a false close, jumping on any lingering or potential doubts and stamping them out at just the right moment, when the reader assumes I'm going to make the offer, and is expecting to be asked for money. Instead, I'll show them another benefit, or series of benefits- Making my research yield gold...
