Customer Reviews

This is not going to be a breathless puff-piece review. I will do my best to let you really get a feel for the book - rather than simply praising it to high-heaven (which I could certainly do) DISCLAIMER - I was given a review copy of the book. My review is written from that. I liked the book -- except for the flaws -- see below -- and would tell you if the book wasn't worth the price.... BIG INSIGHT NUMBER ONE Here's the first big insight you'll get from the book - from Chapter 1... "Copywriting is about communicating with the emotional part of a person's mind in a way that makes sense to the rational mind. The emotional part of your mind is called your unconscious mind."The rest of the book helps you communicate emotionally ...AND in a way that is logical, rational, and makes sense. You will learn how to arouse emotions, use those emotions to help the prospect FEEL all the great benefits of your products or services... and also guide the reader into logical, rational reassurances that the buying decision is a wise one.Brilliant concept, isn't it.And the author keeps it as simple as possible too!You will learn skills, techniques, and have real-world examples in four main areas - thinking, feeling, insight, and energy.Here's another quote from Chapter One that lays out those found areas" The Breakthrough Copywriting Model is designed to help you do just this. It is unique because it covers skills and tools in four areas:1. Thinking is vitally important. But this is also what you learn from virtually every other copywriting book or seminar.2.
