Customer Reviews

As always, Alder’s book is a fantastic resource for any composer/arranger/orchestrator. The only errors I could find were a picture of a Flügelhorn labeled Cornet in the section about trumpets, and mentioning the “Poaching Song” from Grainger’s Lincolnshire Posy as being the third movement in the Second Suite by Holst. The online examples are of great quality as well. As for the physical product: it’s a good sturdy book with glossy white pages. Overall, I’d give it a 4.75/5 for the minor errors, but I can only rate in whole-stars.
