The Apocalypse And Satan's Glory Hole

Synopsis

Armageddon arrived on a weekday, which was really inconvenient for a lot of people, including The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse. After their appearance on The Kayla Mangrabler talk show, they decided to go their separate ways and cause as much havoc as possible. Jesus has been stuck at the craps table for three days, sipping vodka and Red Bull, completely missing the end of the world. But he is about to meet up with Death and go on a road trip that will test their resolve and their blood alcohol content. Meanwhile, an unlikely band of heroes are headed to Las Vegas to fight the Apocalypse. Creepy Chuzz and his one-armed, addict monkey Phil are flying there in an ice cream truck. Chuzz's best friend Leon plans to lend a hand, assuming he can escape the clutches of the insane Father Maniwhore not to mention Pestilence, who has designs on the janitor's bathtub-LSD-addled brain. Along the way they will encounter bouncing glory hole boxes, militant lesbians, an undead general, a flying demon named Princess Sally, hordes of zombies, and a trio of secret agents hellbent on delivering a Cease and Desist order to Lucifer himself. They'd better hurry, because the Devil is rising in the desert, and he is hungry to start the Apocalypse that his son could not. But only if he can get it on with his giant floating glory hole.

Customer Reviews

First a disclaimer as is only right for me to mention - one of the authors is a friend and contributor to my site Buy Zombie. That being said if he wrote a bad book I'd be happy to give him a bad review! There is a style of book out there that is far from the mainstream. It is called bizzaro for those of you who haven't experienced it before you must be warned that it can cause itchy skin, rashes, blindness, seizures and in some cases even death. Keeping the in mind what timothy w. Long and Jonathan Moon have created isn't bizzaro. It is a while new experience and its effects on the human psyche, while still fully unknown, are clearly worse! What they have created can only be referred to as absurdo and since the name is trademarked by Mr. Long I now owe him a million dollars... Unfortunately for him he has to wait in line behind my wife, creditors and bookie. Let's be honest here has has a very long wait in front of him. At any rate onto the review! The novel itself is not dedicated to the zombie culture, however they do make quite a few guest appearances so it can show its cover on our cold dead pages. The book itself is about the end of the world. The Apocalypse has come and there is no hiding from the ravages that Satan has planned for the world. Things don't exactly get off on the right foot though as an overweight God decides he would rather create a new universe with less humans and more chicken pot pies instead of bringing about the rapture. Those who were to be saves?
